We are all truly blessed with family & friends. As you read the information below about Kara Shaw and her children you will understand my phrase. A panel of four people, two men and two women reviewed over 100 “Car for a Cause” nomination forms. We personally spoke to all six women that nominated Kara Shaw who did not know that others had nominated her. When we called Kara she was a little in shock and excited at the same time. After narrowing it down to four nominees it was decided that Kara Shaw and her children to receive the 2005 Town & Country Van.

The San Diego Auto Repair Care group presented the van to Kara and her children On Sunday December 13 on KUSI TV. The San Diego Auto Repair group also supplied a Christmas tree, Ornaments and stockings stuffed with presents for each of the five children including $2000 in cash to help Kara & family in other needs. Words cannot express how happy, blessed and grateful Kara and her children were. It was an unforgettable and emotional day for all.
